

Shining light on Deepwater Horizon impacts to the Florida Panhandle

December 4, 2019 | 1:00 pm CST
Pensacola Library, Meeting Room A
239 N Spring, St, Meeting Room A | Pensacola, FL 32502

Agenda

- 1:00 PM Check-in & registration
- 1:15 PM Welcome & introductions
- 1:30 PM Buried oil degradation at Pensacola Beach
Dr. Markus Huettel, Professor of Oceanography, Florida State University
- 1:50 PM How long will the effects of the oil spill last? (remote)
Dr. Richard Snyder, Director, Eastern Shore Laboratory, Virginia Institute of Marine Science
- 2:10 PM NOAA Fisheries analytical response to the Gulf oil spill
Cheryl Lassitter, Lead Chemist, National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration
- 2:30 PM Break
- 2:50 PM Perinate bottlenose dolphin mortalities following the Deepwater Horizon oil spill
Dr. Alissa Deming, Staff Veterinarian, Dauphin Island Sea Lab
- 3:10 PM Deepwater Horizon oil spill sea turtle injury summary and restoration update
Dianne Ingram, Biologist, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
- 3:30 PM Question & answer panel discussion
- 4:00 PM Wrap up, evaluations, adjourn